Cox

The facts strongly suggest that Jester Cox was the father of Sarah Graham Furrow, so his story is presented here to promote further research. Your comments will be greatly appreciated.

Jester Cox was an early settler in what is now Franklin Co VA. In 1748 he was on the tax list of John Phelps for Lunenburg Co VA, the part that became Bedford County in 1752. On 11Mar1755 he had a survey made of 148A on White Oak Bottom Creek, a fork of Maggotty Creek in Bedford Co VA, and the same day had a survey made of 328A on both sides of Marley's Creek, a south fork of Maggotty Creek. That land was near the Carolina Road which ran through Maggoty Gap to North Carolina, and today is approximately Rte 220: this was the old Great Warrior Path of the Iroquois. On 24Nov1776 his line was mentioned in a survey made for James Slone of 677A at Maggotty Creek in Bedford Co VA. In 1778 his line was mentioned in a survey made in Bedford Co VA for William Mead: nearby landowners were Grimes, Simmons, Charter, Richardson, Allison, Taylor, Holland, Meador and Holloway. 1782-1788 his dau Sarah and her children used the surname Cox in the court case with Grahams and Arthurs in Bedford Co VA. When his dau Sarah Cox remarried 27Nov1787 in Bedford Co VA, Sarah Farley was identified as her mother, and surety was the neighbor James Slone. Jester Cox m Sarah, and their child was:

- Sarah m 1) James Graham and 2) John Furrow

Cox

The facts strongly suggest that Jacky Cox was the father of Sarah Gordon Farrow, so this entry is presented here to promote further research. Your comment will be greatly appreciated.

Jacky Cox was an early settler in what is now Granville Co VA. In 1718 he was on the list of John Phelps for Lunenburg Co VA, the year that Bertie Bedford County in 1752. On 17Mar1759 he had a survey made of 196A on Tobie Oak Bottom Creek, a fork of Haggoty Creek in Bedford Co VA, and the same day had a survey made of 328A on both sides of Marley's Creek, a south fork of Haggoty Creek. That land was near the Carolina Road which ran through Haggoty Gap to North Carolina, and today is approximately the 250 mile mark on the old Great Warrior Path of the Iroquois. On 24Nov1776 his line was mentioned in a survey made for James Shaw of 417A at Haggoty Creek in Bedford Co VA. In 1778 his line was mentioned in a survey made in Bedford Co VA for William Shaw: nearby landowners were Coleman, Simmons, Clarke, Pickerton, Allison, Taylor, Holland, Meador and Holloway. 1783-1788 his daughter Sarah and her children used the surname Cox in the court case with Grahams and Arrows in Bedford Co VA. When his daughter Sarah Cox married 27Nov1787 in Bedford Co VA, Sarah Parks was described as her mother, and surety was the neighbor James Shaw. Jacky Cox is Sarah, and their child is:

Descendants of Jester Cox

Generation No. 1

1. JESTER[1] COX was born 1750. He married SARAH SALLY COLE, daughter of JAMES COLE.

Notes for JESTER COX:
The Following Cox Coxe, & Cocke familys were pioneers of Virginia of record however no relationship has been established except it is believed that Jester & Jacob were brothers.
Col. Charles Cox, Jester Cox, Jacob Cox, and David Cox, William I, and William II came later.

In 1797 Jester Cox Sr. gave gifts of land to his 2 children and moved to Kentucky.
Jacob Cox was believed to be a brother of Jester who also had land on Glade Creek which he sold September 9, 1797 to Joseph Wilson and also moved to Kentucky.

At this writing no records have been found to indicate where Jester came from or who his parents were.
He first appeared in Fincastle Co. Va. in September 7, 1773 to appraise the estate of William Cochran Decd.
He next appeared in Montgomery Co. Va. April 3, 1782 asking to be paid for meat taken by the Militia.
Next he appeared in Washington Co. Va. December 9, 1785, Surveyed for Jester Cox 100 acres in Washington Co. by virtue of a Virginia Land Office Treasury Warrant #19650 lying on the waters of Glade Creek a branch of Powell River.
He also received a 2nd survey on the same warrant north branch of Powell River.

The above info was taken from a book titled Early Settlers of Lee County Virginia, and Adjoining Counties,

A Jester Cox also appeared on the 1790 Russell Co. Va. Tax roll.

Descendants of Jester Cox

Jester Cocke apparently moved to Wayne Co. Ky. as many records of land transactions reside there. I have records from the 1817,s thru 1830.
Its still strange that he does not appear on any Census for these periods.

Children of JESTER COX and SARAH COLE are:

2. i. JESTER[2] COX II, b. 1773, Virginia.
ii. REBECCA COX, m. JAMES FITZGERALD.

Notes for REBECCA COX:
The Fitzgeralds also left Lee Co. Va. and nothing more is known, but it is believed that they followed Rebecca's father to Kentucky..

Query: Winfred Tipton, In 1797 Jester Cox Sr deeded his property in Lee Co. Va. to his two children, Jester COX Jr., and Rebecca COX wife of James Fitzgerald, and left for Ky, along with his brother Jacob COX. No known records have been found for Jester in Ky. but Census records show Jester's in Clark CO. Arkansas in 1820 and 1830. There is also reason to believe that Jester Jr. and Rebecca followed sometime later since no records of them has surfaced after 1800. Jester Jr. had one known son Elisha J. COX my GG Grandfather who lived his entire life in Lee CO. Va. I have lots of info on his descendents. Any info on the two Jester's will be appreciated...

ROOP

The earliest mention of the name occurs in connection with the history of the Norman Conquest. Among the families of France that followed the fortunes of the redoubtable King William was that of Le Coq. This was subsequently changed to Le Cock, and later to Cockbys, and from that, by easy transition, to the great variety of names under which the family has been known in England and America.

John le Cok and Henry le Cok are found in Kirby's Quest Somersetshire A.D. 1327.

It has been said that the family name Cox in most cases originates from the nickname, as Bird, Finch, Sparrow, from the Cock, male of the hen kind.

The name of the first Cox that came to America, of whom we have record, is found in Hotten's Lists of Immigrants of Virginia. A muster of the inhabitants of Elizabeth Cittie, 1624-25, gives "William Coxe aged 26 in the Goodspeed 1610." This William Cox received grants in Elizabeth City and also in Henrico County on the James River. Many believe that this William Cocke, Burgess for Henrico County 1646 was identical with the above William Cox.

The Cox Coat of Arms described is the Arms recorded in Burke's General Armory for Cox, of Herefordshire, branches of which family settled in Ireland.

ARMS: Or, three bars azure, on a canton gules a lion's head erased argent.

CREST: An antelope's head erased ppr. pierced through the neck by a spear.

Several pioneers by the name of Cocke or Cox migrated to the Virginia frontier prior to the Revolutionary War and acquired land by grant. The name is spelled Cocke in most of the early records and Cox in many of the later records. Among the pioneers by the name were: Col. Charles, Jester, Jacob and David Cocke. William I and William II Cox appear later in the Lee County records. The relationships have not been established but the indications are that Jester and Jacob Cocke were brothers.

COL. CHARLES COCKE

I. Col. Charles Cocke, one of the most distinguished pioneers, received large land grants in what was then Washington County, later Russell and Lee Counties. He was allowed pay for several claims for property taken for public service during the Revolutionary War. (See "Claims" in Miscellaneous Section III.)

Charles Cock's Bond

1792 Novem. 26th

Know all men by these presents, that we, Charles Cocke, Richard Price, Isaac ____, are held and firmly bound to Henry Lee, Esq., Governor of the State of Virginia, and his successors in the Just and full sum of two thousand pounds, to be paid to the Said Governor & his successors; to which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves Jointly and severally our Joint and several heirs, Executors, or administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals & dated this twenty-sixth day November 1792.

The condition of the above obligation is such, that whereas the said Charles Cocke has this day covenanted and agreed with the Governor of Virginia, that he, the said Charles Cocke, will regularly furnish the two companies of volunteer militia under the command of ____, now raising for the defence of the South-western frontier of this State, with Rations from the third day of December next, till thay shall be regularly discharged—each Ration to consist of one pound of beef or three-quarters of a pound of Pork, One pound of Flour bread, flour or fine Indian meal, half a Gill of Rum, brandy or whiskey, and one quart of salt for every hundred rations; the said Charles Cocke to receive from the public Treasury Eight cents for each Ration so furnished, now if the said Charles Cocke shall regularly supply the said Troops with rations as above stipulated and for the term aforesaid, then the above obligation to be void, else to remain in full force and Virtue.

(Calandar Of State Papers, Vol. 6, p. 100)

Col. Charles Cocke acquired several large land grants, lying in then Washington County, later Lee County, Virginia. He and his wife, Elenor, made many conveyances of land in Lee County to other pioneers, all of record in Deed Book I. The first deed of record was dated, 11 June 1793:

Charles Cocke and Elenor, his wife, 400 acres for 20 shillings to Grabriel Chrisman. (DBK 1-2)

2 April 1798: Charles and Elenor Cocke deeded 200 acres for 150 pounds to John Cocke-land on Indian Creek. (DBK 1-101)

John Cocke and Mary Everett, his wife, sold, 11 Sept. 1797, a tract of 200 acres for 130 pounds, to James Fulkerson. (1-98)

I. Jester Cox (Cocke) (the name is spelled both ways), the ancestor of one branch of the Cox family in Lee County, Virginia, appears in Fincastle County in 1773.

At a Court 7th September 1773:

George Adams, Jister Cox, and James Anderson being first sworn are appointed to appraise the Estate of William Cochran Decd. and make return thereof according to Law.

8th Sept. 1773 he served as a juror with others. He next appears in Montgomery County, April 3, 1782:

Jester Cox made satisfactory Proof that he had 300 pounds of Beef taken from him by the Montgomery Militia when on duty and that he ought to be paid three pounds for the same. (Annals of Southwest Virginia, pp. 613, 614, 768.)

The next record found of Jester Cox is in Washington County, Dec. 9, 1785:

Surveyed for Jester Cox 100 acres in Washington County by virtue of a Virginia Land Office Treasury Warrant No. 19650, lying on the waters of Glade Creek, a branch of Powell River.

He also received a second survey in Washington County, part of the same warrant, "lying on the head waters of ____ Creek, North Branch of Powell River." All of record in Washington County. After the formation of Lee County, 1792-3, his land fell within the boundary of the new county.

Jester Cox (Cocke) married Sarah Cole, date and place unknown. Jester and Sarah Cox (Cocke) left descendants in Lee County through their son, Jester Cox, Junior.

Known Children:

1. Jester Cocke Jr. His wife was Mary (Polly), surname unknown.
2. Rebecca Cocke. Rebecca married James Fitzgerald prior to 1799.

Jester Cocke, Senior made gifts to his two children. He deeded land to Jester, Junior and personal property to his son-in-law and daughter Rebecca. (See the Deeds.)

After Jester Cocke, Senior made gifts to his children he sold his remaining land in Lee County, making two deeds in 1797, and removed to Kentucky. (See the Deeds) (DBK 1, pp. 61; 64, Lee Co., Va.)

Jacob Cocke acquired a land grant in then Washington County, later Lee County, lying on Glade Creek which he sold, 9 September 1797, 84 acres for 85 pounds, to Joseph Wilson. Signed: Jacob and Mary Cocke. (DBK 1-73) After the sale of his land Jacob Cocke removed to Kentucky.

1. Jester Cocke (Cox) Jr., son of Jester Sr. and Sarah (Cole) Cox, and wife Mary had only one known son, and nothing further is known of Jester Jr. and Mary (Polly) Cox at this time.

I. James Fitzgerald married Rebecca Cox before 1799, dau. of Jester and Sarah (Cole) Cox. James Fitzgerald conveyed part of 150 Acres granted to James by patent 12 November 1792, adjoining Wyatt Adkins...crossing the river...corner to John Patrick, to James McGee for $30...9 November 1802. Recorded in Deed Book 1, p. 285.

The Fitzgeralds removed from Lee County, Virginia and nothing further is known. However, it is most likely that they went to Kentucky where Rebecca's father, Jester Cox, settled for awhile at least, after leaving Lee County, Virginia.

(1) Elisha Cox (son of Jester and Polly) was born Sept. 24, 1798; d. May 14, 1867 in Lee Co., Va.; m. May 9, 1820 in Claiborne Co., Tenn. by the Rev. DAVID COX (COCKE)

According to tradition David Cox was born on the waters of the Yadkin River in North Carolina, and when a young man migrated to Virginia and became one of the early settlers at Fort Blackmore, where he rendered patriotic service in the Revolutionary War. In the course of his wanderings he passed through Big Moccasin Gap into what is now Scott County and came to the Clinch at the mouth of Stony Creek. (R.M. Addington's History of Scott County.) The name appears in the records as David Cox (Cocke) and David C. C. Cocke. He was most likely born 1742-48 but the records do not agree as to the exact date of birth. He died Feb. 28, 1828 (another date July 10, 1827) at Fort Blackmore in Scott County, Virginia. It is said that he married 1775 or earlier. His wife was Jemima Leese (Leece, Leach) who died at Fort Blackmore, Jan. 12, 1834 where she is buried. The following records of the DAVID C. COCKE family were copied from the Family Bible of Dr. Robert Kilgore Cocke and contributed by MRS. MARGARET BARRON TAYLOR:

David C. Cocke, died July 10, 1827, married
Memima Leese died Jan. 15, 1834
Children: Jemima Cocke married David Nelson
Patsy Cocke married John McKinney
Betsy Cocke married William Brickey

WILLIAM COX

I. William Cox was an early settler in the Pittsylvania-Henry County area of Virginia where he was a land holder. His wife was Jemima (Mima) either Turner or Chadwell. Some claim she was a sister of David Chadwell while others claim she was a sister of Elizabeth Turner, wife of David Chadwell, Senior. They remained in Henry County for several years, but on October 18, 1779 William Cox and wife Jemima (Mima) sold a tract of land, an original grant, 1775, to Carr Bailey of Henry County for the sum of fifty pounds. (DBK 1-283)

Sometime after 1779 William Cox moved to then Washington County, later Lee County and settled in Powell Valley, near David Chadwell's settlement on Indian Creek. William Cox died after Jan. 7, 1820. He made a will dated January 7, 1820 but the will has not been found in the Lee County Court records. By the will he left one half of his plantation to his wife Mima for life and money due from Joseph Koger. One Jemima Cox is listed in the 1820 census, living alone, and this is most likely the widow of William Cox.

William and Jemima Cox had several children:

1. William Cox. One William Cox married Nancy Baker, a young widow with two children, William and Susannah. He made a will and appointed his father, William Cox Sr., Executor. William Cox Jr. died after 26th December 1801. The probate date is missing.

2. Josiah (or Isaiah Cox), m. Catherine Chadwell, dau. of John.
3. Mary Cox, m. Dennis Burns. (See the Deed.)
4. Barthena Cox, m. Greenbury Cloud.

Other children: Jemimah, Lucy, George, Preston, Betsy and Nancy.

CHARLES COCKE

CHARLES S. COCKE and Nancy his wife came into Court and filed a Suit August 1819 for Slander against James Shepherd. Nancy Cocke states that she has always been a good, faithfull and virtuous woman and respected by all her neighbors and acquaintances and has never been suspected of Adultry. However, James Shepherd has published in the hearing of many good citzens that she was guilty of Adultry with Cannon Washam. Nancy and Charles sue for $2000 in damages.

The Deposition taken 20 December 1819 of BEVERLY SHEPHERD in the Town of Franklin in Howard County, Missouri Territory - Questions by James Shepherd to Beverly Shepherd:

QUESTION: Did you not hear Charles S. Cocke tell me that my wife was a liar in regards to his wife Nancy commiting Adultry with Cannon Washam?

ANSWER: Your reply was that the report was above stated in regards to Nancy Cocke.

QUESTION: Where was myself and Charles S. Cocke when this conversation took place?

ANSWER: You were on the Main Road leading from the Town of Monticello to Somerset, about 40 or 50 yards from each other.

N.B. There is no Court House in the above Town of Franklin.

CHARLES COCKE

Pension Application - R 2086 - 5 Feb 1838 - Washington City, Lee County, Virginia - In order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed 7 June 1832:

On this 15th day of January 1838, personally appeared in open court, before the court of Lee County, now sitting, Col. Charles Cocke, resident of Clarke Co, Arkansas, aged about 88 years the 12 Nov. next makes the following declaration in order to obtain the Pension.

That about the month of July in 1780, I was commissioned by the Governor of Virginia as a Captain of Militia, in the then County of Washington, Virginia, over a company of Rangers in the Regiment, at that time commanded by Col. Arthur Campbell, the number of which I have now forgotten. I was stationed with the company under his command during the balance of that year and in 1781 at the Rockey Station Fort, in the then county of Washington, but now County of Lee, on the Old Kentucky Trail on the southwestern frontier of Virginia. That time embraced a period of about 18 months and was in constant service, either in acting as spies, in prusuit of the savages or in guarding the fort. Beings I was very active and interprising from my infancy and accustomed to the woods and well acquainted with the Indian character and wiley acts and when spying was to be done, selected 2 or 3 men of my command on whom I could most depend for that service and with them, acted as a spy, intrusting the protection of the Fort to his subordinates and the majority of the company. During this service, several times I pursued the savages when they would make incursions into the settlements murdering the inhabitants and stealing their property and on several occasions I was engaged in bloody skirmishes with the Indians; and can say with certainty that I killed several of them myself, being in constant danger. This mode of life and duty continued from the year 1780 until Sinclairs defeat, I think in 1790. My duties were not so incessant after 1781 as the settlements were growing more populous and other stations were created and Major Andrew Lewis, Capt. Hawkins and others were sent out with aids. Major Lewis with his command visited my station in 1782, which was the only aid I recieved before the close of the Revolution in 1783. When Major Lewis was here, in 1782, I joined him in an expedition some distance down into what is now the State of Tennessee toward the Cherokee towns, but had no engagement with them. After the War, I continued my duties for some years and had several short campaigns. Previous to my appointment to the command of the Rocky Station Fort, I was on an expedition of about 6 weeks against the Tories on New River who were about embodying to destroy the Lead Mines. This service was performed as a private soldier under the command of Capt. HENRY FRANCIS who was under the command of Col. William Campbell and previous to the Revolutionary War, I was on an expedition against the Northwestern Indians in a company commanded by Capt. William Herbert in a Reg. commanded by Col., then Major Christian. The Col. Christian with his command, was near to Point Pleasant at the mouth of the Kanawha when Col. Lewis defeated the Indians at that place. This service was performed in 1774 as well as I recollect and was engaged about 6 months commencing in early May and ending the latter part of November following. I am entitled to a pension as a Captain. My Post Office address is Greenville, Clarke County, Arkansas.

Pension was rejected.

Charles S. Cocke was born 12 November 1750.

JOHN & JAMES CROOKS entered into a Partnership about the First of February 1825 in Wayne for the purpose of Carrying on a Distillery. They purchased two copper stills from John L. Dibrell, one containing about 170 gallons and the other about 75 gallons. They prepared a still house and bought large quantities of grain and paid hands to help set it up and when they commenced work, they made 70 or 80 gallons of whisky. Their inventory also consisted of 2 still caps and 2 still worms and 7 still tubbs, one small barrell and 1 small troft at a cost of about $500.

THE GANN FAMILY

NATHAN GANN (1759-1839) OF JONESBORO, TENNESSEE

Progenitor of most of the men named GANN who moved west and southwest in early America was Nathan of Jonesboro, Tenn. He was born in 1759, fought in the Revolutionary War, and says in his pension declaration (S1820) that he was reared in Halifax County, Virginia.

MILITARY SERVICE: In the autumn of 1776 at Halifax he volunteered for military service and was assigned to go on a tour with Capt. Verney of the militia. Then he moved to Guilford County, North Carolina, later settling in what is now Washington County, Tennessee. In March, 1778, he was a Lieutenant in Captain Milliken's company of North Carolina militia and served a tour against the Chickamauga Indians; then one under Capt. Hubbard, followed by a tour under Capt. Moore. Later he also went out under Col. Wotten and Cleveland in an expedition against Indians. For four months he was with Capt. Michael Harrison.

In the winter of 1779 he served almost six months in Capt. Gibson's company as a horseman to range the frontier, whereas for three months he was with Capt. Christipher Taylor in Col. Sevier's regiment, during which time he fought in the Battle of King's Mountain. Later he took a tour against the Overhill Indians with Taylor, Sevier, and Campbell. He served at least 22 months as a private and nine months as Lieutenant.

His application for pension was executed Sept 10, 1832 at which time he was 73 years of age and living in Washington Co., Tenn. He died July 18, 1839 leaving a widow named Sarah.

The above account is from his official U.S. Army record. It takes no account of his private efforts to advance the cause of American independence and development. In 1800 he was at work as Captain of the County Militia (see Gov. Sevier's commission book). His neighbors always referred to him as "Captain Gann", and his co-patriots averred he did a captain's work at King's Mountain.

The North Carolina "Revolutionary Army Account", under the heading "Special Certificates Paid Into the Comptroller's Office", show that Nathan was paid by Carter and Williams for military service, as were also his father, Adam Gann, and his uncle (?) Clement Gann and his brother Thomas Gann. These vouchers and certificates specify that the service was rendered in Washington and Sullivan Counties.

LAND OWNERSHIP: Adam Gann, the father of Nathan Gann, had also a brother named Nathan. The son Nathan, here studies was known in his youth as "Ignatus" to differentiate him from his uncle. After his Uncle Nathan removed to Georgia, the youth took the name "Nathan", and late in life left proof in Washington County that his full name was "Ignatus Nathan Gann".

Consequently, in 1777 Ignatus Gann bought land in Guilford Co., N.C. from John and Sarah Smith (Bk. 1, p.414). In 1782 when he apparently went to what is now Tennessee to stay, this land was sold to John Cardwell or Cordwell (Bk 2, p.254).

On December 16, 1778, he received from the state of North Carolina a land grant for 341 acres in Guilford County, "on the MAYO MOUNTAIN AT SARAH POWELL'S CORNER" (Deed bk. 1, p.517). These land acquisitions coincide in time with his entry into the military and settling in North Carolina, where he gradually followed the frontier in its westard move. He never again resided in Virginia. The land he occupied in Guilford County is now adjacent to Madison, having fallen in Rockingham County when it was organized. Samuel Gann, Nathan's older brother or uncle, lived for around fifty years on or adjoining it. By 1790, he was permanently established on the Nolochucky River in Tennessee. According to tax lists assembled by Mrs. Mary H. McCown, the first Gann record in Tennessee is a property tax dated 1781 on Adam Gann, Nathan's father for 150 acres, 2 horses, 7 cows, total value 427 pounds.

FIRST MARRIAGE: The lineage of Mrs. Erma Brobeck Hansard (DAR) shows that Daniel Gann, born in 1777, was a son of Nathan, but this has not been proven. Nathan probably married first ca 1776-7 during the time of his removal to Carolina. At Rusk, Texas (Cherokee Co) on the 15 January 1855, Soloman Gann a proven son of Nathan, left an affidavit in which he refers to his mother as Susan Gann. Soloman was born in 1798. Whether Susan was the first wife is unknown. At Jonesboro, a record states that Nathan was married three times and had about twenty children. His third wife was Sarah Delaney, whom he wed 24 December 1817 in Roane County, Tennessee.

HIS PLANTATION: When Nathan removed to the Nolochucky River about 1781 or 82, ownership of this land was still disputed by the Cherokee. All white settlers lived under constant threat of attack. In fact, during the years 1780-90 and into the 1800's, the entire area between Guilford courthouse and the Nolochucky seethed with strife. Tory uprisings required quieting, Indians raided and finally the British Army moved in and took battle stance.

Nathan, along with his father, his brothers, his uncles all stood steadfast with guns in hand, in defence of American independence and white ownership. Nathan's plantation consisted of a tract granted by the state of North Carolina in 1782 to Joseph Brown Sr., and sold by his son Joseph Jr. to Ignatus or Nathan Gann for cash, 4 September 1790 (Wash., Co. DB4, pp. 143-44; Bk. 32, p. 365). As far as we know, here Nathan remained the rest of his life. Just how the land was owned or traded amongst the family, etc., is not known, but when he died in 1839, Nathan possessed part if not all of Adam's original grant plus his own additions. To this day the farm has more or less been in the hands of his descendants. The present owner is Mr. Lester Snapp.

The farm lies on the Nolochucky River twelve miles from Jonesboro. New Salem Church and Cemetery adjoin it on land donated out of the Gann estate. Mr. Leland T. Jordan of Lufkin, Texas, whose wife descends from Nathan, provided an air photo of the holding as it is today. Lines of very old trees, some dating back to Revolutionary War Times, outline the boundries. Mill stones equally as old, line the edge of the river. The Church and cemetery lie southeast of the site of the original homestead, while the modern home of the present owner sits next to the place where Nathan's house stood.

HIS GOVERNMENT MARKER: Along with his wives, Nathan was buried on his farm, but the exact location is unknown. A short distance from the house is a U.S. Govt. Marker attesting Nathan's Revolutionary War Service, and is visible from the road.

In Jonesboro, Tennessee, folklorists repeat the story that Nathan Gann fired the shot that killed the British General, Patrick Ferguson, at the Battle of King's Mountain. Seven or eight Tennessee men stood behind a group of enemy wagons when Ferguson rode into sight. John Sevier said, "Shoot that Man", and Ferguson fell from his mount.

"Whose buttet"? Sevier asked.

"Sir", said Gann, "I felled him".

Sevier said, "I believed him because I have seen him stand in a canoe and shoot the eye of a fish. He was a most excellent shot".

The following excerpt comes from a letter written 5 July 1967 by Mrs. McCown to Mrs. Jessie Jordan of Lufkin, Texas: "....today while cleaning out some stacked records, I found my notes from old Mr. J. Fain Anderson who had lived and taught at Washington College since 1867 and knew the history of the area. He died in 1929 and these papers have been lost for several years. Here is what I took down when Mr Anderson talked to me:

"This cemetery (New Salem) came off Nathan's farm...where he lived before 1780. He was the man who said he shot Callient Patrick Ferguson. In a field about half a mile from the church is buried Nathaniel Gann, with his wife...in the center of the field they were then and on into 1360. The graves were beautifully enclosed in a walnut frame with unlettered rocks. Mrs. David Good, buried in the cemetery in March 1850 was Nathan's daughter...Captaim James Good was in Pitt's Regiment, Confederate Tenn. Army. He was a grandson of Nathaniel Gann, who was buried in his own field...".

CHILDREN of Nathan Gann: (18)

Nathan Gann Jr., buried Paulding, Georgia. (living June 1843)
Isaac Reuben Gann, born 1782; died 1846; buried Buchanan, Mo.; married Anna Clark.
Anne Gann, buried Greene, Tenn.; married David Brumley; d. 5-1-1848.

Mary "Polly" Gann, buried Angelina, Texas; married George Massingill.
Lucinda Gann married Jacob Harmon, 19 Feb 1824 Wash. Co., Tenn.
Rebecca Gann married Mr. Laugham.
Anna Jane Gann married Elias Whisler, 25 Dec 1837, Wash Co., Tenn.

Anna Jane Gann married Elias Whisler.
Pamelia Gann married David Good, 9-23-1840, Wash Co, Tenn.
William Gann born 1797; died 1872; buried Houston Co., Texas; married Ruth Delaney.
Soloman Gann born 1798; died 1884; buried Hamilton, Texas; married Malinda Miller.
Sampson Gann died 1907; buried Wise Co., Texas; married Mary Good.
Sophronia Gann.
Margaret Gann married Abraham Winkle (Van Winkle?).
James M. Gann married Caroline Harmon, 8-6-1851, Wash. Co. Tenn.
Sarah S. Gann.
Malinda Gann married William Moore in 1842.

All above except Isaac Reuben, Anne and Rebecca likely were alive in 1848. When Ignatus Nathan Gann died Intestate in Washington Co., Tennessee in 1839, he left an estate to be divided between some 18 heirs and his widow Sarah Delaney Gann (see Washington Co. settlement of estate Vol. O.P. 3, Nov. 1841) John Hunter was appointed guardian of the minors: Margaret, Malinda, James M. and Sarah S., all these 4 having been born after Dec. 1817 and being the children of his third wife. For proof that Ignatus and Nathan Gann were the same man, see Washington Co. Deeds, Vol 4, p. 143, Sept 1790; and Vol. 32, pp. 365-66, March 185_ (?).

On 5 December 1913, Sam Houston Gann I, of Fort Worth, Texas, set-forth in an attested statement at the Nat'l headquarters of the D.A.R., the lineage of his father, Nathan Wilson Gann of Angelina County, Texas, whose father was William Gann, A Texas Pioneer from Tennessee. This William Gann's father was Nathan Gann, Revolutionary Soldier who died in Washington County, Tennessee. Nathan Wilson Gann, he declared was born in Tennessee, probably Cocke County. His father's name was William and the wife of William before her marriage was "Delaney". These two came to Angelina County in 1836. William Gann was buried at Crockett, Texas. "My Great Grandfather, continued Sam H. Gann, "was married 3 times and is said to have reared some 17 or 18 sons, many of whom left Tenn. about 1836 or 1837. Some went to Missouri, some to Arkansas and some went to Texas. Uncle Soloman and Uncle Sampson being two of the latter. Sampson Gann went to Comanche County. Uncle George Massingill married my father's sister and they lived in Angelina County. Soloman Gann was alive in Cherokee County, Texas in 1855." "Grandfather Gann (William) had 5 boys and 3 girls that I know of. The boys were John Delaney, Nathan W., William Jackson, Wesley and George W. The girls were Louisa who married Broxson; Sarah who married Harrison Cocker and lived near San Antonio and Ruth who married Elisha Evans. They lived in Angelina County".

Among many Gann Family members who have made notable achievements are: Mrs. Jessie Wright of Lufkin, Texas who assisted her husband, Leland T. Jordan, who was knighted by Queen Elizabeth II for developing Kuwait Oil Field; the Hon. The following is a direct transcription from "Clark County Arkansas, Past and Present" pub. 1992 by the Clark County Historical Assn., submitted by Sharon Young:
"Jester Cocke -- Jester Cocke was born about 1773 in Virginia and died in 1852 in Clark County, AR. The 1850 U.S. Census of Clark County shows his wife, Cynthia, born about 1803 in GA. She may have been his second wife.
Jester Cocke had ten known children, all of whom were born in Arkansas: (1) Matilda, b. ca. 1820/25, Married Samuel A. Cooper, 28 August 1845, in Clark Co.; (2) Nancy Ann, b. ca. 1820/25, died after 1880, married first, 14 Feb. 1844, John W. Huffman, married second, John Lowery, 16 Sept. 1860; (3) Elizabeth, b. ca. 1829, died abt. 1863, married David DeLaughter, son of Solomon and Susanna Trailor DeLaughter, on 10 Jan. 1847, in Clark Co; (4) Lucinda, b. ca. 1825/30, Married 5 May 1847, Joshua Murray, in Clark Co.; (5) Samuel Wilkerson Cocke, b. ca. 1833; (6) Milithy Caroline, b. ca. 1835, married 22 June 1851, in Clark Co., James Aikins; (7) James Madison Smith Cocke, b. ca. 1837; (8) Milly Josephine, b. ca. 1839; (9) William Henry Cocke, born ca. 1841; (10) Andrew Wesley Cocke, b. ca. 1844."
I hope this has helped you. The reason I answered this query is that I have a tie to the Huffman family mentioned and Jester Cocke's name was familiar to me as he was one of the people who purchased items at the estate sale of my gg-grandfather, John Rose, in 1834. They must have been close neighbors near present day Okolona/Antoine, Arkansas. I presently live in Arkadelphia, Clark County's county seat. I had lived here for 25 years before I discovered that one of my ancestors, Nancy Ann Rose, had been born here in 1829. Small world!

There are many people who have lived long and fascinating lives, but who have faded into obscurity. This can happen for many reasons, the most common of which are a lack of documentation or a lack of descendants.

Colonel Charles Cocke is one of those people. As far as is known, there is no record of his children, and only a handful of people have traced their ancestry back to him. Fortunately, unlike most people, Charles Cocke left much evidence of his passage. The most informative document we have is his Revolutionary War Pension Application. Not only is does the narrative make for interesting reading, but we are told that he travelled all the way from Clark County, Arkansas to Lee County, Virginia to make his application- at the age of 88.

From these glimpses, we find that he was an interesting man who lived in interesting times. Like many of his contemporaries, he seemed to relish the adventure and danger of living on the frontier. Although he was placed in command of a frontier fort, he personally conducted several scouting missions and was involved in several engagements. Although he may have enjoyed the challenge of a solitary existence, he was also respected as a leader of men and held several military and political positions. And, although he lived a long life, he seemed always to be an explorer and entrepreneur, looking for opportunity just over the horizon. Or in his case, moving from the relative safety of Kentucky to Arkansas when he was 80 years old. And, of course, we should not forget that a brave man is generally accompanied by a brave woman. While Charles was proving his mettle in the field, his wife Ellender was proving her courage by raising a family under difficult, and sometimes dangerous, conditions.

Since Charles Cocke is reputed to have been a "long hunter", we will treat our quest as a "long hunt"- in search of Colonel Charles Cocke, his wife, Ellender Ewing, and their family.

We owe much to those who have blazed a trail before us. For the most part, I am just following paths that others have laid out for me and trying to make sense of it all.

For introducing me to Charles Cocke, I am indebted to my mother, Nan Crowther. She may have also been the first to discover (or rediscover?) that Ellender Cocke was the daughter of Charles Cocke and Ellender Ewing. For the research on Ellender Ewing, I am indebted to all the great Ewing researchers mentioned on the Ewing pages. For the research on Jester Cocke, companion to Charles Cocke, I am indebted to Winfred Tipton. For the research on John Cocke, likely son of Charles and Ellender, I am indebted to Mary Anne C. Rick. I am extremely indebted to Martha Mullens Tutt for all the research that she has done on Mary Mullens, likely daughter of Charles and Ellender, and for all the work she has done on the Cocke and Mullens family. The amount of information she has gathered equals or exceeds my own. I am also indebted to The New River Valley web page, which has been a valuable source of Census and other information.

If you do not see your name here, please do not be offended. In my rush to put this page on the internet, I have not yet had time to acknowledge the efforts of everyone who has helped. If you check back a few months from now, and I have still missed you, let me know.

At some time around 1770, Charles Cocke married Ellender. We have found no record of this marriage. The first reference to Charles and Ellender Cocke is in 1773, where they are paid a witness fee for their attendance at a Court in Fincastle County, Virginia.

According to several references, such as "Early Settlers of Lee County, Virginia" [p. 124], this Ellender was Ellender Ewing, daughter of John Ewing. Support for this conclusion can be found in the Will of John Ewing and other circumstantial evidence.

The Will of John Ewing clearly indicates that his daughter Ellender Ewing married Charles Cocke:

> I give and bequeath to my daughter Eleanore Cocke, my brown mare, with what I have already given her and no more.
> *** * ***
> I give and bequeath to my Son William and Charles Cocke my whip saw and cross cut.

In addition to identifying Charles Cocke, the Will also mentions their son, John Cocke:

> I give and bequeath to my grandson John Cocke two hundred acres of land at the mouth of Trading Creek, including both sides of said creek for quantity.

We are fairly certain that we have found this son John Cocke, and the evidence indicates that he is a son of Charles and Ellender Cocke. Two of his children were named Charles and Ellender.

Some versions of this Will have the word "grand" inserted before "Son William and Charles Cocke", implying that Ellender had two sons William and Charles, and leaving it open for question whether her husband was Charles Cocke or another Cocke. It is not clear why this insertion was made. In other cases, e.g., the reference to "grandson John Cocke", the Will clearly referred to grandson.

Other circumstantial evidence is provided by the persistent association of Charles Cocke with Ellender Ewing's family. Charles Cocke engaged in a number of land transactions with Ellender Ewing's father, John Ewing. Ellender Ewing's brother, William Ewing, lived near Charles Cocke on "Trading Creek" and gave an affidavit in support of Charles Cocke's Pension Application. (While he does not state his relation, the birthdate that he gives is the one assigned to him in the Ewing genealogies.)

Ellender Ewing has also been described as Eleanor. However, the evidence points to Ellender. First, if her name was Eleanor, then it is unlikely that her name would ever have been spelled Ellender. Second, her daughter who died in 1825, was named Ellender, since that is the name that appears on her tombstone. Third, the name appears among the children of her other likely descendants, such as John Cocke.

Instead of being a source of confusion, the name is unique enough to provide valuable clues as to the possible descendants of Charles and Ellender. The origin of the name is unknown, but appears to have been used by the Porters. The name of Ellender Ewing's mother may have been Ellender Porter.

No marriage record has been found for Charles Cocke and Ellender Ewing. At present, their earliest child appears to be Anne Cocke, who was born on 7 Apr 1772. This indicates that Charles and Ellender were married prior to August of 1771, when Charles would have been almost 21 years old.

One factor which may narrow things down further is that there is a theory that John Ewing, Ellender's father, did not move from Cecil County, Maryland to Virginia until sometime in 1770-1771. Assuming that Ellender accompanied her father, this does not give Charles and Ellender much time to get acquainted prior to the conception of Jane in mid-1771.

One possibility that Charles Cocke was also from Cecil County, Maryland. However, the appearance of a Charles and Jester in Lunenburg County ca 1750 make it more likely that Charles Cocke was born and raised in that part of Virginia.

The more likely explanation (as discussed in the section relating to John Ewing) is that the John Ewing selling household goods in Maryland is not our John Ewing. Instead our John Ewing had moved to Prince Edward County ca 1760 and to Cripple Creek sometime after that.

John Cocke of Lee County, Virginia and Madison County, Alabama

The evidence that this John Cocke was the son of Charles Cocke and Ellender Ewing is fairly conclusive:

1. We know that Charles and Ellender had a son John. In his Will, John Ewing, the father of Ellender Ewing, left 200 acres of land along Trading Creek to his grandson John Cocke.
2. The John Cocke mentioned in the Will appears to be the John Cocke who married Mary Everett, since, in 1797, they sold 200 acres of land along Trading Creek to James Fulkerson.
3. Similarly, in 1798, Charles and Ellender transferred 200 acres of land along Indian Creek to a John and Mary Cocke in Lee County, Virginia.
4. In 1808, John and Mary Cocke of White County, Tennessee, sold 200 acres of land along Indian Creek to Jacob Crabtree. The 1850 Alabama Census records indicate that this John and Mary Cocke lived in Tennessee in 1810 (their son James is listed as having been born in Tennessee).
5. In 1812, this John and Mary Cocke moved to Madison County, Alabama. In 1818, Charles and Ellender Ewing also moved to Madison County, Alabama. They were joined in Madison County by other relatives, including their cousin Stephen Saunders Ewing. Also joining them was Sarah Carter (a sister of William George Carter, father of Mildred Carter, who married Anthony Dibrell, brother of John Lee Dibrell - whew! how's that for a stretch?).
6. And last, but not least, this John and Mary Cocke gave their children familiar names, including Charles, Ellender, Jane and Jester. The use of the name Ellender is particularly significant.

During his stay in Wayne County, John Cocke appears to have involved in some kind of dispute with a couple of individuals, leading to accusations that he had stolen a horse and (of all things!) a beehive. He was found innocent of the charges, but one has to wonder what was really going on.

Jane Cocke and Gabriel Chrisman of Russell and Lee Counties, Virginia and Wayne County, Kentucky

Jane Cocke, a likely daughter of Charles Cocke and Ellender Ewing, married Gabriel Chrisman. This theory is supported by the names of their children, including Charles Chrisman and Campbell Ewing Chrisman. Also, Charles Cocke and Ellender Ewing named one of their children Charles Scott Cocke, possibly in honor of Jane Scott, mother of Gabriel Chrisman. Furthermore, like Charles and Ellender Cocke, Gabriel and Jane Chrisman lived in Lee County, Virginia and moved to Wayne County, Kentucky. (Unfortunately, I have been unable to verify that Jane's last name was Cocke. I had seen her referred to as Jane Cocke. I have also seen her referred to as a daughter of Charles and Ellender Cocke, by people who did not know who Charles and Ellender Cocke were. This indicates that there must be some kind of record of her last name- but, so far, it has eluded me.)

The Chrismans are of German descent (Christmann) and were among the first settlers of the Shenandoah Valley and, later, Lee County. Many of the Chrismans appear to have moved to Wayne County, Kentucky around the same time as Charles Cocke. However, Gabriel and his brother Nimrod appear to have remained in Lee County, since they appear in the 1810 Personal Property Tax List.

There are a number of interesting connections between Charles Cocke and the Chrisman family. The Rocky Station Fort, where Charles Cocke was stationed at during the Revolution, was formerly owned by Isaac Chrisman, Sr., Gabriel's father. Isaac Chrisman, Jr., Gabriel's brother, served as a Representative from Lee County in the Virginia House, along with Charles Cocke. Isaac Chrisman, Jr. was also married to Judith Wallen, a daughter of Thomas Wallen and Mary Cox. Thomas Wallen was a brother of Elisha Wallen, who organized the famous longhunts which Charles Cocke may have joined. Mary Cox may be a relative of Charles Cocke.

The children of Jane Cocke and Gabriel Chrisman appear to have inherited their grandfather's wanderlust. Six of the twelve children moved to Missouri and three continued on to Oregon. The Chrisman children who moved to Missouri include Elijah, John, Gabriel, Abraham, Nimrod and Campbell Chrisman. The Chrisman children who continued on to Oregon include Joel, Isabel and Walker Chrisman. The second husband of Isabel was Isaac Crabtree, who moved to Oregon along with his siblings, John, Smyth, Job, Jr., and William. The Crabtree family had been in southwest Virginia for several years- several were longhunters; and one was responsible for starting an Indian war. The Crabtree family also married into the family of Jester Cocke. The Oregon families presumably had first moved to Missouri and then moved to Oregon via the Oregon Trail, which started in Missouri.

Ellender Cocke and John Lee Dibrell of Wayne County, Kentucky and Whitley County, Kentucky

Ellender Cocke, a likely daughter of Charles Cocke and Ellender Ewing, married John Lee Dibrell a couple of years after they moved to Wayne County, Kentucky. It is thought that Ellender was the daughter of Charles Cocke and Ellender Ewing for several reasons: (1) Her name was Ellender, which is a relatively unique first name; (2) Her last name was Cocke, a spelling which is confirmend by the Wayne County Marriage Book; (3) She married John Dibrell in Wayne County shortly after Charles and Ellender Cocke had moved there; and (4) One of the children of John Dibrell and Ellender Cocke was named Charles Cox Dibrell.

The Dibrells were descendants of Hugenots who settled in Manakintown, Virginia around 1700. Their grandfather Antoine Du Breuil was orphaned soon after his birth and was apprenticed to Antoine Benin (the father of John Benning, after whom Fort Benning, Georgia is named). Antoine Du Breuil changed his name to Anthony Dibrell and married Leanna Lee, a descendant of the Lee family of Virginia.

John Lee Dibrell was the son of Charles Lee Dibrell, a veteran of the Revolution. Charles Lee Dibrell married Martha Burton, a descendant of the Burtons of Henrico County, Virginia. In 1802, Charles Lee Dibrell was appointed Colonel in charge of the Wayne County Regiment of the Kentucky Militia (the "Cornstalk Militia"), which should make him one of the first "Kentucky Colonels".

Charles Scott Cocke of Wayne County, Kentucky and Clark County, Arkansas

According to a History of Wayne County, Charles Scott Cocke was the youngest son of Charles Cocke. Like his father, he lived in both Wayne County, Kentucky and Clark County, Arkansas.

Charles Scott Cocke had a colorful life. He sued a man in Wayne County, Kentucky for accusing his wife of infidelity. He was put on trial, along with Samuel Gholson and another man, for rape and was successfully defended by Micah Taul. He was eventually convicted of murder in Clark County, Arkansas and executed. The newspaper accounts indicate that he was also thought to have murdered a man in Tennessee.

His middle name of "Scott" is given in a newspaper account of the murder trial. The name could have come from Jane Scott, the mother of Gabriel Chrisman, who married Jane Cocke, daughter of Charles Cocke and Ellender Ewing.

Jester Gwinn Cocke is a possible son of Charles Cocke and Ellender Ewing. Like Charles Cocke, he lived in Wayne County, KY. He had children named Jester, Charles and Eleanor (possibly Ellender). Around 1830, the family moved to Johnson County, Missouri.

Jester Cocke of Lee County, Virginia, Wayne County, Kentucky and Clark County, Arkansas

Throughout his travels, Charles Cocke was always accompanied by a Jester Cocke. This was true in Lee County, Virginia, in Wayne County, Kentucky, and in Clark County, Arkansas. However, it appears that these were not necessarily the same Jester Cocke, but were father and son. In 1799, Jester Cocke, Sr sold his property in Lee County to his daughter Rebecca and her husband James Fitzgerald. He then moved to Kentucky and settled into what later became Wayne County, Kentucky. Charles joined him a few years later. Jester Cocke, Sr. may have also preceded Charles to Madison County, Alabama. There is a listing that shows a "Lester" Cocke living in what was then Indian territory. (One source of confusion is that Jester Gwinn Cocke also married a Sarah, and they continued to show up in the Wayne County records until 1830.) There is an unidentified Jester Cocke who died in Monroe County, Mississippi in 1839. He is mentioned in a court case and appears to have been associated with the family of William Cocke from Tennessee, a descendant of the Cockes from Henrico County, Virginia. This might have been Jester Cocke, Sr.

The Jester Cocke who accompanied Charles Cocke to Clark County, Arkansas was Jester Cocke, Jr. This is shown by his age in the 1830 Census.

Jester Cocke, Sr. is said to have had a brother Jacob Cocke. They both moved to Kentucky in 1799. However, very little is known about this Jacob Cocke.

Jester Cocke is an unusual name. Yet, we have evidence of what appears to be 5 different Jester Cockes, who lived in Washington County, Virginia, Wayne County, Kentucky and then Clark County, Arkansas or Johnson County, Missouri. They also had a propensity for marrying women named Mary. Below is a side by side comparison of these Jesters.

In addition to these related Jester Cockes, there appears to be other Jester Cockes/Coxes, a couple of whom appear in Mississippi. The Jester Cockes appear to be descendants of the North Carolina Cockes. The Jester Coxes appear to be descendants of a family of Coxes from Pennsylvania.

Family Origins

We know virtually nothing about the parents or ancestry of Charles Cocke. He was apparently related to a Jester Cocke who accompanied him on his travels. The name Cocke suggests a Scots-Irish ancestry. However, there is some evidence to suggest that he might be Swedish. Alternatively, the name could be a derivation of the German name Koch. The possibility of German ancestry is further increased by the fact that Jester Cocke is said to have had a brother Jacob, another name which is predominately German or Dutch.

It is likely that Charles and Jester Cocke are related to Charles and Jester Cocke who appear on 1748-1752 Lists for Lunenburg County. In 1750, Charles and Jester were listed in the same household. Also listed were many of the same families that are later associated with our Charles and Jester, such as the Newells, Coles and Mulins. It is not known precisely where these families were living. The area covered by the lists is supposed to have encompassed present day Campbell and Bedford Counties. There are a few other Cockes who appear in this area, including John Cocke and Abraham Cocke.

There are indications that Charles and Jester Cocke from Lunenburg County continued to move west. In 1755, Jester Cox said to have settled on "Maggoty" (now Maggodee) Creek, which is south of the town of Roanoke in present Franklin County. This Jester Cocke may have remained in Franklin County. The relationship to our Charles and Jester Cocke is suggested by the fact that the descendants of a Grimes family, which associated with this Jester Cocke, later joined our Charles and Jester Cocke in Montgomery/Washington County.

A Jester Cox is also shown as having settled on Crooked Creek in 1768 at a place called the Glades, which is apparently east of the New River near the present border of Grayson and Carroll Counties. This property was later transferred to Charles Cox, and then to a James Cox.

The Charles Cocke from Lunenburg County may be the Charles Cocke who is listed as having been at the Battle of King's Mountain. I have been told that the Charles Cocke at King's Mountain did not fight, but was placed in charged of the prisoners, which is typically the kind of duty that older soldiers were asked to perform.

Since it is likely that our Charles and Jester Cocke are related to Charles and Jester Cocke from Lunenburg County, this would tend to rule out the possibility that they moved to Virginia along with the Ewing family in 1771.

The Cockes of Onslow County, North Carolina

Charles and Jester Cocke could be related to a Cocke family which settled in Onslow County, North Carolina. This family had several family members named Charles and, more importantly, Jesper- which turns out to be a Swedish name. It is possible that some members of this Cocke family moved to Virginia, although Onslow County is a good distance from Virginia.

The Cockes of Grayson County, Virginia

There is a chance that our Charles and Jester Cocke are children of John Cocke (c1727-a1800) and Elizabeth Goad (1726-1799). This family lived in the same area as our Charles and Jester ca 1770-1778. They had a son named James, which may be significant since our Charles Cocke had a grandson named James and because a Jester Cox transferred property on the Glades to a James Cox. The Charles and Jester Cocke of Lunenburg County lived near the father of Elizabeth Goad ca 1750. Also present in Lunenburg County was the Cole family, which is interesting because both our Jester Cocke and Andrew Cock (son of John and Elizabeth) married Coles. The Goad connection is also interesting because of their relationship to the Seviers. In the 1830s, Charles Cocke called upon Ambrose Sevier to defend his son and to assist him in obtaining his Revolutionary War Pension. Unfortunately, there is no indication that Charles or Jester Cocke of Lunenburg County were sons of John Cocke and Elizabeth Goad. Further, the ancestry of John Cocke is not known, so it is not possible to tie into related families.

The Cockes of Henrico County, Virginia

There is a chance that Charles and Jester Cocke on Lunenburg County are the children of Stephen Cocke (c1663-b1718) and Martha Bannister of Henrico County. Their son Abraham appears to have been living in Lunenburg County at the same time as the elder Charles and Jester. The name Stephen may be significant because our Charles Cocke had a grandson named Stephen. One of the sons of Abraham Cocke was William Cocke, who lived in the same areas of Virginia as our Charles and Jester, and went on to become a famous politician in Tennessee. He ran for office in Madison County, Alabama, about the same time Charles Cocke moved there. Unfortunately, it cannot be proved that Charles or Jester Cocke of Lunenburg Couty were sons of Stephen Cocke and Martha Bannister. Stephen and Martha did have a son Charles, but he is said to have died young. And there is no indication of a son Jester. However, an unknown Jester Cocke is mentioned in connection with the family of William Cock in Monroe County, Mississippi.

The Cox, Blevins and Wallen Families of Grayson County, Virginia

Charles Cocke appears to have associated with the Wallen and Blevins families. A Charles Cocke is mentioned in connection with the longhunts organized by Elisha Wallen. Both Charles Cocke and members of the these families were part of Captain William Herbert's Company and fought at the Battle of Point Pleasant. In his 1811 Deposition, Charles Cocke says that "Sometime in the year 1775 he was on Blackwater it being a North Branch of Clinch River". This is near Kyles Ford, where some of the Wallens had settled. Later, Charles Cocke, Thomas Wallen and others were appointed by the Virginia Legislature to find a better road to Kentucky.

In an interview, Major John Redd indicated that there was a Cox family that was closely associated with the Wallen and Blevins families. This raised the possibility that Charles Cocke might have been a member of this Cox family. Unfortunately, Major Redd did not specify which Cox family he had in mind. A couple of likely families were examined. However, the evidence does not indicate that Charles Cocke was related to either of these Cox families.

The first family considered is the family of John Cox and Mary Rankin. Although John Cox died in Pennsylvania, his family moved to what is now Grayson County, Virginia. In 1772, several members of this family were listed in Captain William Herbert's Company, along with Charles Cocke, and members of the Wallen and Blevins families. John Cox, Jr. and David Cox fought together with Charles Cocke in the Battle of Point Pleasant. However, there is no indication that Charles was a member of this family. John Cox died in 1749, before Charles was born, and they consistently pronounced their name as Cox.

The second family considered is that of Stephen Cocke and Judith Woodson. Their daughter Mary Cocke married Thomas Wallen. Some accounts indicate that the Charles Cocke who was on the longhunt with Elisha Wallen was a brother of Mary Cocke. However, there is no indication that Charles Cocke was a member of this family. Stephen Cocke died in 1743, long before Charles was born, and they also consistently pronounced their name as Cox.

The Coxes of Montgomery County, Virginia

There is another family of Coxes who appeared in Montgomery County around the time of the Revolution. This family is interesting because their family includes several named Jester Cox (which was apparently the first name of a maternal grandfather). However, it appears that they arrived long after Charles Cocke, were probably Tories, and insisted on using the Cox spelling.

David Cocke of Lee County, Virginia

Another family to which there appears to be no immediate relationship is the family of David Clinton Cocke, which appears in Lee County, Virginia during the same time as Charles Cocke. David Clinton Cocke is said to be the son of Henry Cocke from Yadkin, North Carolina. The parents of Henry Cocke are unknown, but the name suggests a Germanic ancestry. This family may turn out to be distantly related to our Cockes.

Other Clues

There are other Cockes who might be relatives. One possibility is an Alexander Cox, who was one of the adminstrators of the Estate of Isaac Chrisman, father of Charles Cocke's likely son-in-law Gabriel Chrisman.

David Clinton Cocke of Lee County, VA

David Clinton Cocke appears in the 1787 and 1790 Russell County, Virginia Personal Property Tax List along with Charles Cocke and Jester Cocke. However, there is no apparent relationship, and they lived several miles from each other. David lived and owned a mill near Fort Blackmore, which was in Lee County in 1800, but is now part of Scott County, Virginia.

David Clinton Cocke supposedly was born in the Yadkin River Valley of NC circa 1750. He was married to Jemimah Leach and they moved to what is now Scott County VA circa 1775. They were active in the Stone Creek Baptist Church and appear in the Church records. The entire family is not listed below.

In General

According to the recollections of Major John Redd (1755-1850), there was a Cox family that lived in southwest Virginia and was associated with the Wallen and Blevins families. It is said that these families lived together in what is now Henry County, Virginia until the time of the Revolution. However, the evidence indicates that they had already moved further west by 1774, when they fought in the Battle of Point Pleasant. Even earlier, Elisha Wallen, Jr. is generally credited with organizing the famous long hunts.

The family of John Cox below is thought to the Cox family described by Major John Redd. This family originally settled in western Pennsylvania, and, in 1756, sons __ and __ fought in the French and Indian War. During that war, sons John and __, along with their brother in law John Craig were kidnapped by Indians. After the war, Mary and her sons moved to Virginia, eventually settling in what is now Grayson County, Virginia. By the time of the revolution, John Cox (1739-1818) had risen to the rank of Captain. His brother David (1737-1810) was a lieutenant and served for awhile under his brother John Cox. James Cox (1763-1842), son of John Cox, also served.

There is also a chance that the Cox family described by Major John Redd was the family of Stephen Cox and Judith Woodson. Their daughter Mary Cox married Thomas Wallen.

Wallens, Cox and Blevins Families

"It is vary probable that Walden, Cox & Blevins established a hunting camp in Powel's valley a few years after 1761, for the Blevinses & Coxes were a vary numerous family, and many of them were long hunters; they lived on Smith's river in the neighborhood with Walden, and they were connected to him by marriage."

"When I first knew him [Elisha Wallen, Jr.] he lived on Smith's river at a place called the round-about, near the centre of the county [Pittsylvania], and about two miles east of Martainsville, the present county seat of henry, he lived near his wife's fathers, Will. Blevenes. Walden, the Blevines & Coxes owned no land, but were squatters on land owned by a company of speculators. During the revolutionary war the assembly of Va. passed a law that all British subjects owning land in Va. must come in by a certain time and take an oath of alegance, and become actual setlers, or ther land would be confiscated. After the act was passed, two of the british subjects owning land in Pitsolvania (now henry), came in and complied with the act of the assembly, the Blevinses and Coxes, for they feared they would have to pay many years rent they all moved off en mass. The Blevinses & Coxes settled on the holston above the long Isleans."

I am seeking information on Jester Cocke/Cox, born about 1773 in VA and died before 1860 in Clark Co., AR. Jester may have been a son of Jester Cocke, SR and Sarah Cole. He lived in Wayne Co., MO before moving to Clark Co., AR. Some of his children lived along the Little Missouri and Ouachita Rivers in Southern Arkansas near my ancestor Abner Cox (b. abt 1805 in MO and d. Spring of 1851 in Ouachita Co., AR). Could Abner Cox of Ouachita Co., AR have been a son of Jester Cocke/Cox of Clark Co., AR by a first marriage? Any information on these two families would be appreciated.

Check out http://www2.southwind.net/~crowther/Cocke/Trail.html. Charles Cocke was usually to be found in the company of a Jester Cocke. The birth date does not line up but that's often the case. Phil Crowther has done alot of indepth research on this line. The family starts in VA, goes to KY, some split off and go to TN and AL, Charles disappears for about 10 years and turns up in AR.

I'm also trying to find info about Jester Cocke. His daughter Elizabeth married David DeLaughter and her name was originally shown as Cox. It was only in a copy of his will that I found her name was actually Cocke.
You might want to check Phil & Janet Crowther at familytreemaker.com who have an extensive listing for Cocke families. They show a Jester Gwinn (Sr) Cocke, born 1781 in VA; married Mary 1808 in NC. He had a brother Charles Scott Cocke, born ca 1780; died 29 Apr 1833 in Clark County, AR; married Nancy (?). This coincidence of another Cocke in Clark County, AR seems to be a good lead. Unfortunately, they don't give any further info about descendants of Charles or Jester.

Jester Cocke is my great great great grandfather. I have his daughter Elizabeth married to Obadiah W. Strange on 01 FEB 1827 in KY (I think Monticello, Wayne Co.). They had 10 children; Squire Thomson, Emily Jane, Sarah Elizabeth, Penelope A., Angeletta F., Louisa W., Lucinda W., Surrelda A., Obadiah and George William. They were in KY 1820-1830 +/- and ended up in Johnson Co., MO. I don't have much more info except scant birth, death and marriage data.

I'm sorry, Charles S. Cocke is the father of Jester G. Cocke Sr. not the uncle. I looked at my sheet wrong as I was typing.

Charles Scott Cocke b. 12 NOV 1750 married 1770/71 to Ellender Ewing.

Children were;

Jane b. 1772
Mary b. 1773
John b. 1775
Jester G. b. 1781
David b. 1785
Ellender b. 1788
Charles b. 1790

Information I have is that Charles and Ellender Cocke had a daughter named Mary that was born ca 1773 and was married to Isaac Mullen before 1790 in Washington Co.,VA.

Mary would be as sister to the Jester Cocke b. 1781 (my ggg-grandfather).

I would appreciate any added info on the line.

I have found a James Allen Cocke of Monroe County, AR (in Goodsepped's "Eastern Arkansas", p. 523) born 2-10-1837, died 2-22-1917, son of Jester Cocke and Eliza Atkins. This family is buried in Macedonia Cemetery, Holly Grove, AR. Is this a connection to the Jester Cocke line?
I am looking for James' brother John B. (John Benjamin?) Cocke, who was (I believe) a colonel in the Confederate army.

Jester Cocke is my great-great-great grandfather. He had 8 children by his first wife Sarah Ann _____. When she died in 1843 he married his housekeeper Mary Buckney. They had one child, Benoni. Benoni married Louisa Hunt and they had 12 children some of which stayed in west MO, some went to IL and one went to OK. My great grandfather stayed in IL. I have seen the name Rober Pleasants Cocke but have never seen where he is related and he is certainly not the father of Benoni. I have a good deal of data from Jester Sr. until now but have not been able to link Jester to a father anywhere. I have a Dr. Phylander Davis Hughs married 01 APR 1862 to Sarah Jane the daughter of Jester G. Cocke and Mary Hannah. I assume that he is related to you. I would be happy to exchange info.

Thanks for all the compliments. I think the pension thing would have been straightened out if he had lived. My mother is trying to add him to her list of DAR ancestors.

Regarding the Quakers in Montgomery County, I believe you are right. I seem to recall a Flowers company that was sometimes referred to as a Tory regiment. (Perhaps because they refused to take the Oath of Allegiance, they were automatically considered Tories). But, other sources say that it is a Quaker company (and therefore unable to take an Oath). As I recall that Cox family was ultimately from Pennsylvania and Flowers was the name of a real person.

Regarding the McGee family, I have a bit on them, particularly since Mary McGee m. 1809 Wayne Co, KY David Cocke/Cox. I have her father as John McGee who m. Elizabeth Cocke/Cox d/o Allen Cocke/Cox. I am guessing that David was s/o Lemuel Cocke, Jr. since one of their children was named Lemuel. I also have an Allen Cocke/Cox who m. 1810 Wayne Co, KY Mary English. I am guessing that he is also a son of Lemuel, Jr- but who knows?

One reason that I am confused about the surname is that the descendants of David Clinton Cocke from Scott Co, VA are claiming that his father was Henry Cocke, d. bef. 1777 Surrey Co, VA, s/o Lemuel Cocke, Sr. One problem with that connection is that the will of Henry Cocke refers to his son David as being a minor son. However, before 1777, David Clinton Cocke had married, had children and moved to Russell Co, VA. So I am not convinced of the connection.

For what it is worth, here is the family tree that I have constructed from a lot of bits and pieces of information. Appreciate any corrections, comments, etc. Half of the task of finding out who is related to Charles is finding out who is not.

and their children were—Alva R. and Ollie E. The second wife died February 4, 1887. Mr. Hurst settled upon his present farm about 1874, and owns 218 acres of good land. Forty acres he received from his father's estate, and the rest he has made himself. In politics he is a Democrat.

JESSE W. STANLEY, farmer and stock-raiser, Marion Township, was born in Wayne County, Indiana, March 23, 1832, son of Jeremiah and Jemima Stanley, the father a native of North Carolina and the mother of Pennsylvania. His father's ancestors were English. He was only two years of age when his father died, and six years old when his mother died. His parents were early settlers of Indiana. After their demise he was reared in the family of John Estep, his maternal grandfather, in Wayne County, with whom he lived until he reached his majority. He was educated in the common schools of his time, and his occupation has been principally that of farming. March 15, 1857, he was married to Miss Rosanna Parks, born in Wayne County January 14, 1833, and daughter of Curtis and Nancy Parks, natives of Ohio. The mother died when she was fifteen years of age. Her father is now in his eighty-fourth year, and has lived upon one farm fifty-six years. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley have had six children, five living—Miron E., William D., John L., Murrey C. Frank F. and Lizzie A. The latter died March 17, 1887. She was the wife of John H. Girten, of Putnam County. Mr. Stanley settled upon his present farm on section 8, Marion Township, in the fall of 1865, and owns forty acres of good land. To the parents of Mrs. Stanley were born eleven children, four living—John, Levi, Elizabeth and Rosanna. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley are highly respected members of society.

SQUIRE A. COX, a pioneer of Putnam County and a resident of Marion Township, was born in Pulaski County, Kentucky, January 25, 1818, son of Jacob and Frances Cox, natives of Virginia. Several of his paternal ancestors were soldiers in the Revolutionary war, and some of his maternal ancestors served in the war of 1812. He is of English-Welsh descent, his ancestors having immigrated to America prior to the Revolution, settling in Virginia. He was reared to manhood in his native county, and received a limited education in the early schools of his time. He was but two years old when his mother died, and only fifteen when his father died. He was thus early thrown upon his own resources. In the fall of 1838 he removed to this county, and for the first seven years lived in Franklin Township. He then located on section 11, Marion Township, where he has since resided, and where he owns a good farm of 127 acres. He was first married August 1, 1839, to Nancy W. Harrah, a native of Kentucky. She came to Putnam County with her parents in an early day. To this union was born one child—Currilda F., now deceased. Mrs. Cox died January 23, 1842, and March 28, 1844, Mr. Cox married Cynthia A. Vermillion, born February 14, 1823, a daughter of Isaiah and Tillitha C. Vermillion, who settled in Monroe Township, five miles north of Greencastle, in 1823. Mrs. Cox is now the oldest living native of Putnam County residing in the county. They have had three children, all of whom are deceased—Currinda, and two that died in infancy. Mr. Cox is a self-made man. All that he has he has made by economy, perseverance and good management. He has never served as a witness for or against his neighbor in a law-suit, and has never served on the grand jury. His word is considered as good as his bond. In politics he affiliates with the Republican party, but has never sought official positions. His wife is a worthy member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and both are respected members of society.

STEPHEN BENNETT VAN CLEAVE, proprietor of the Vine street and South End meat markets, at Greencastle, was born near Shelbyville, Shelby County, Kentucky, May 18, 1821. He was reared on a farm and had but limited school advantages. When in his twenty-first year he left his native State and came to Indiana, which was then a Territory, locating at Columbus, where he engaged in farming until 1848. He was then engaged in butchering for a few years, and in 1855 came to Greencastle, where for thirty-two years he has carried on butchering, and sixteen years of that time has occupied his Vine street market. In the fall of 1886 he opened his branch market at South End, Greencastle. November 4, 1841, he was married, at Columbus, to Miss Elizabeth Abbett, daughter of James and Nancy (Brent) Abbett, of Newcastle, Henry County, Kentucky. She was born in Newcastle, but after her eleventh year she was reared by a sister living near Columbus, Indiana. Mr. and Mrs. Van Cleave have had seven children —Tilton Allen, of Chicago, Illinois; Albert Newton, who assists his father; Joseph Lawson, of Greencastle; Stephen Bennett, Jr., Charles Thomas, who is associated with his father under the firm name of Van Cleave & Son; Henry Douglas, of Greencastle, and Mary Margaret, who was married October 1, 1873, to W. B. Kindall. Both are members of the Missionary Baptist church, and Mr. Van Cleave is a member of Putnam Lodge, No. 45, I. O. O. F., of which he is past grand. His parents, Joseph and Mary (Allen) Van Cleave, were natives of Virginia, and removed to Shelby County, Kentucky, about 1810, where the father died in 1846, aged sixty-three years. His mother came to Greencastle in 1858, where she died in 1861, at the house of her son Jesse, aged seventy-two years. Both were members of the Missionary Baptist church.

M. WRIGHT, farmer and stock-raiser, resides on section 27, Floyd Township, where he owns 290 acres of land. He was born in that township May 20, 1841, son of Martin and Leah (Chadwick) Wright, natives of North Carolina. They removed to Putnam County in 1835, where they remained until the decease of the father. Our subject passed his early life on a farm and has always been a farmer. He was married January 3, 1865, in this county, to Miss Amanda Chatham, who was born in this county in November, 1843, a daughter of J. W. and Sarah (Jones) Chatham, and they have had three children—Ulysses A., Ollie A. and Birdie L. Mr. Wright is a Republican in politics. February 15, 1865, he enlisted in Company C, One Hundred and Forty-eighth Indiana Infantry, serving seven months. He was mustered out and discharged at Indianapolis. His education was limited to the subscription schools of the early day, but he has good practical sense and a fund of general information. He had about forty acres of land to

• The Parents of Elizabeth Cox

• • Elizabeth Cox is the daughter of Allen Cox & Mary 'Polly' Hilliard Cox. Allen Cox signiture can be seen on Elizabeth's marriage papers Allen signed giving permission for Elizabeth to Wed John McGee.

Some family trees indicate that Elizabeth Cox is the daughter of William Cox and Ann Brown Cox. This is not correct!

The Elizabeth Cox who is the daughter of William and Ann Brown Cox married a William Warner on 9 Dec 1799, Burton Overy Leicestershire England. There are census and marraige records to prove this. They had several children together and according to records she died in England.

Also according to the book "KENTUCKY: A History of the State, Battle, Perrin & Kniffin, 4th ed., 1887 Cumberland Co."

There is an article about Granville McGee (John and Elizabeth's grandson by thier son Jacob and his wife Sarah Jones McGee) which clearly states that John McGee and his wife Elizabeth Cox McGee were native Virginians, who came in a very early time of Kentucky's colonization to Wayne County, Kentucky, John Mcgee lived all his life, and after his death his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Cox McGee, moved with the family of ten children to Fentress County, Tenn.

George Clear/Clair/Clare

- 1738-1800 , Botetourt County VA, Pulaski County KY
- George Clare Clair/Clear born 1738, died Apr 1790 married Mary (Polly) Cox born about 1739, died 1785-1786 Botetourt Co VA. George, Jacob and John Clare may have been sons of Henry Clare mariner of St. Dunstan's Stepney Parish of Middlesex County (Virginia) who was given power of attorney by Adam Smith 16 December 1719 to handle sale of plantation of William Smith in Prince George's County Maryland.[1]

George Clear is listed in 1774 Berkeley County Virginia Census on Opequon Creek near Allen Cox.[2] He located in Botetourt on Glade Creek and witnessed Allen Cox's purchase of property along with Jacob Smith in 1782. George and Polly Clare had: i. Thomas born about 1772, died about 1841. ii. John born about 1774, died before 1822. iii. Mary born 1775, died after 1850. iv. Margaret born 1776, died 1857. v. Francis (Frank) born 1779, died 1816. vi. Allen born 1783, died 1845. vii. George Jr. born 1784, died 1874.

After Polly's death George married 10 Jul 1787 Susanna daughter of Johannes Kessler (Feb 1728-24 Mar 1823) and Eva Dorothy Lehman (24 Feb 1734-24 Jul 1838). George and Susanna had: viii. Jacob born 1788. ix. Daniel born 1790, died 1843. George Clair is listed as taxed for 9 persons in 1785[3] Botetourt Enumeration and taxed for 83 acres in Captain May's Co 1781-1786.[4] George Clear is listed 1786-1790 Botetourt Land Tax [5] District of Hugh Allen with 83 acres that are listed under Susannah Clear 1792-1796 and then under George Clear deceased 1797-1801. According to a court case in Botetourt County 10 Aug 1809 George had purchased right to 380 acres of 1000 acres in common with several other persons and after George's death the patent was issued in name of Thomas, eldest son of George and carried under Thomas' name even though Thomas had moved to Pulaski Co KY. Susanna's father John Kessler included Clear's property into his own survey in order for the Clare descendents to sell the property 1813 and 1822. [6]

A fter George died, Susanna granted permission for her stepdaughters to marry her brothers: Mary Clare to Christian Kessler 26 Oct 1793 and Margaret Clare to Benjamin Kessler 19 Nov 1795. Susanna's oldest stepson, Thomas Clare paid bond for Sarah (Sally) Cox, daughter of Allen Cox Sr. to marry Susanna's brother David Kessler 14 Apr 1792. Sons of George Clear: Thomas, Allen, Daniel and Francis Clare moved to Pulaski Co KY north of the Cumberland River along with their cousins Allen, Ezekiel, Isaac and Jacob Cox sons of Allen Cox Sr.
